
Where to meet nice Stoner ladies.

Posted by Sticky Fingers - 2007/12/12 03:47

Its impossible, they never go out, and if they do where do they go? Its hard for a single stoner bloke like me, where do all the pretty stoner girls go? Pub type girls don't really appeal to me as they tend to be pissed and rather annoying, just like the blokes, but with boobs and nicer hair.

As a stoner bloke you are consigned to a lifetime of loneliness, shite telly and hand-shandies.

Try going for non stoners, you may well be surprised at their leniency towards you. I pick them up in the art shop!!!

You can find the highest concentration of stoner ladies at festivals :)

You could try The Happy Apple just before closing, you might find nice stoner ladies hanging around the crisp or chocolate section looking a bit sketchy.

The rancid smell is probably just some out of date veg rotting away in the storeroom.

Ok - what I have surmised so far:

- 1) Stoner ladies in totnes are smelly
- 2) There is a pub called the Happy Apple
- 3) This pub serves food
- 4) I should probably not eat this
- 5) Not much else ...

Can we get on topic please?

Tony, the owner of the Happy Apple also owns Apple Flats - I remember years ago him pissing off one of the tenants who told me they'd stuffed a bag of prawns behind the a freezer in his shop - perhaps this is the mysterious smell?

Another mate of mine was staying living in one of his flats and the silly fool went to sleep after leaving the chip pan on, which then caught fire, ruining the cooker, extractor and most of the paintwork. Tony got really shitty about it, kept his deposit and demanded thousands of pounds more, which of course, he never gave him. Instead he phoned the Devon Fire and Safety Authority who in turn inspected the flats and forced Tony to spend thousands to make them comply with fire regulations.

An Ode to Crappy Apple

I can smell your potatoes a-cooking

On the vegetable rack, in the light
Oh no, that's the smell of them rotting
And suffering potato blight

I can see all the dew on your carrots
It doesn't get better than this
Wait a minute, the dew isn't yellow
Or sticky, oh my god it's rat's piss

Oh the onions, the red and the white ones
The Spanish are the biggest I've seen
But I thought that genetic modification
Would have stopped them from going so green

And the deli, the sweets, and the cheeses
The snow white caerphilly and brie
So it's one rocky road and bloody great load
Of that mouldy, squashed cheddar for me!

Well the staff are so helpful and friendly
Well, helping their friends to the drinks
Except for the one that has no friends
Coz she's better than that - so she thinks

It's so cheap it's a wonder you're open
The prices in here are a steal
But when your stock is off-loaded from Safeway
It's going to be a good deal

So here's to the Apple of Totnes' eye
I'll drink to your foes far and near
For I'll drink to just about anything
But not with your out of date beer. <http://www.canedintotnes.co.uk/images/fbfiles/images/crappy.gif>

A trader friend of mine gave me this advice:

- 1) Women are depreciating assets
- 2) This depreciation is exponential - they depreciate more as they get older
- 3) They require maintenance
- 4) They exclude you from entering other profitable exchanges

The solution to this: Renting - they are freely available and you don't loose out in your investment over time.

and you don't have to put up with their shit...
